

ALIMONY SOUGHT BY THIRD WIFE OF ART CONNOISSEUR

C. P. Buchanan, Wealthy Merchant and Yachtsman, Is the Defendant.

Mrs. Martha V. Louise Buchanan, the third wife of Charles P. Buchanan, to-day sought alimony and maintenance from her husband, I. T. Buchanan, through her attorney, I. T. Buchanan, at No. 31 Broadway, has instituted her second separation suit by filing her summons and complaint. She petitions for $1,500 a month alimony and $500 a week for the Special Term, Part 1, of the Supreme Court. Justice Gleason will pass on her alimony motion next Wednesday.

Mrs. Buchanan sets forth that she was married to Buchanan in New Jersey Dec. 21, 1905, and says they have no children. She alleges her husband abandoned her Dec. 15 last without cause and left her without adequate means of support.

Buchanan, she alleges, has for years treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. His conduct has been such as to render it unsafe and improper for her to live with him, she swears.

"During a number of years," continues Mrs. Buchanan, "my husband has lived in open and notorious relationship with various women and has lavished thousands of dollars upon the said women; has been living in great wealth and luxury and has furnished them with diamonds and jewelry to the value of thousands of dollars."

SAYS HUSBAND HAS $40,000 YEARLY INCOME.

"On many occasions he would bring his women friends to my apartment and, in my presence and that of others, constantly express the great love and affection he had for these various women."

Mrs. Buchanan claims her husband has within the last two years inherited an income of $40,000 a year from a trust fund left him by his father, William Buchanan, who made a fortune in the job business in Brooklyn, and died worth several million dollars. She said he previously had a large income.

Buchanan filed a petition in bankruptcy last July for the purpose, according to his wife, of disposing of certain claims held against him by the late firm of O'Gorman, Bette & McManis, and was adjudicated a bankrupt but has not yet been discharged.

Buchanan's first wife was Miss Adelaide Taylor, daughter of William L. Taylor, a prominent banker and broker. He died with her and they were married at the First Presbyterian Church. They had three children. She obtained a divorce in 1895 and died six months later.

Buchanan within a few months married Margaret T. Browner of Indianapolis who divorced him in September, 1905.

The present Mrs. Buchanan is a daughter of the Countess de Blum of Paris. She brought suit for a divorce from Buchanan less than eighteen months after her marriage, naming a Pittsburgh widow as co-respondent, but a reconciliation was effected. She sued for separation in 1909, but withdrew the suit.

Very Remarkable Values in

SUITS and OVERCOATS

For Men and Young Men

These are the days, seemingly, of very extravagant claims in the advertising of even some of the stores that bear excellent reputation. We ask you to make comparisons with Macy's offerings before you buy a Suit or Overcoat.

These are regular stock reduced, on which Macy's "Lowest-in-the-City" price was $19.75.

$13.75

Clothes of absolutely identical quality sold elsewhere earlier in the season at $25.00.

Regular stock, remember, of which every Suit and every Overcoat is necessarily right up to the Macy standard.

It will pay you to distinguish carefully between these Clothes and Clothes in big "sales" elsewhere, which have been specially bought for the occasion, or "consigned" by the manufacturer to be sold if possible.

The choosing is from wide variety. Almost every good style in Suit or Overcoat is included. Full range of sizes. All the desirable colorings. And values such as we know from careful investigation are not even approached anywhere else in town.

Men's $60.00 Fine Fur-lined Overcoats $39.50

Shell of a very fine imported kersey. Lining and collar of near seal.

Men's $42.50 Fur-lined Overcoats $26.75

Black kersey shell, lined with muskrat. Persian lamb or Hudson Seal (dyed muskrat) collar.
